To whom it may concern

David Jafari the proprietor of Andre & Sons Painters and Decorators have been members of the Master Painters Association of Victoria for a period of 6 years.

Through this time David has conducted himself in a professional manner without any problems being brought to our attention. David has also through his time as a member abided by the code of conduct our members are asked to adhere to.

David has great pride in his workmanship, which is a testimony to the relationships he builds with his clients and the on going referrals he receives. The Association has given David many referrals through his time as a member and will continue to do so.

David is a proud member of the Master Painters Association which has helped his business to grow and in turn the association benefits from quality tradespeople, such as David being a part of our organisation.

You can call me to discuss in further details any of the above mentioned comments in the office on (03) 9813 5922.
